Coroner's Jury Lay No Blame on Account of the Death of Charles Kenon.

(Special to The Times Dispatch.)
PETERSBURG, VA., Jun. 13.—Captain E. Everleth Winslow, of Norfolk, the E. Everleth Winslow, of Norfolk, the engineer in charge, said to-day that he expected to advertise by the first of February for bids for the work of divorting the water in Appoint River. Captain Winslow is now preparing the specifications and will liave them rendy within a few days. He says that the money appropriated by Congress will be Smple to do the work.

The annual election of the officers of the Francis Bland Randolph Chapter, D. A. R., will be held to-morrow afternoon at the residence of Mrs Robert Harrison.

The body of Charles Kenon, who was accidentally killed near the city yesterday, was shipped to-night to Basic City, the former home of the decased, for interment. Mr. Kenon was a foreman of men engaged in widening the canal, and was standing too near a blost when it was discharged. He was hurled a distance of a hundred feet and died without regaining consciousness. The jury of inquest returned a verdict that decased came to his death by his own negligence. HIS OWN FAULT. negligence.
Owners of vehicles in the city have then relieved of many buggy robes re-cently, and it is believed that a gang of organized thieves is at work in this line. Two negroes, Bert Lewis and David Lee, are under arrest on suspi-cion, several robes similar to those that were stolen having been sold by the med.

The Corporation Court will meet in monthly session on the 21st, and the following have been summoned to serve as jurors: Grand jury-P. C. Jones, R. M. Lavelle, W. H. Cuthbert, S. S. Elliott, F. W. Booth, T. J. Jeffersen, George W. Fegram, W. G. Andrews, W. M. Rucker, W. J. Crowder, W. W. Brister, W. D. Tucker. Petit jury-C. B. Allgood, James F. Campbell, W. W. Donnan, Isham R. Dyer, Edwin G. CHARLOTTESVILLE, VA., Jan. 12.—
The committe appointed by the Chamber of Commerce to investigate the plan of the Virginia Railroad and Improvement Company, in which it is proposed, under certain conditions, to locate a trolley line of railroad from Charlottesville to Point-of-Rocks, Md., and from Charlottesville to Abberone, and thence to Tidewater, submitted its report at the regular meetin, of that body last night, recommending that the Chamber endorse the enterprise. The report was unanimously adopted.

ing that body last night, recommending that the Chamber endorse the enterprise. The report was unanimously indopted.

The committee's report stated that at a conference with Colonel Cary Ruffin Handolph, vice-president of the company, it was informed that if the citizens of Charlotesville would subscribe an amount cause to $50.00 in treasury stock of the company, such stock to be represented by certificates convortible within two years into interest bearing first mortgage bonds, secured by a lien on the tranchises and property of the company, the line as now proposed could be modified in plan so that the building of the same would begin at Charlottesville and proceed thence wither to Madison/Courtnouse, on the north, or to Alberene, on the south, and thence east. In the opinion of the committee, the above sum could be raised in Charlottesville.

Malaria is not confined exclusively to the swamps and marshy regions of the country, but wherever there is bad air this insidious foe to health is found. Poisonous bad air this insidious foe to health is found. Poisonous vapors and gases from sewers, and the musty air of damp cellars are laden with the germs of this miserable disease, which are breathed into the lungs and taken up by the blood and transmitted to every part of the body. Then you begin to feel out of sorts without ever suspecting the cause. No energy or appetite, dull headaches, sleepy and tired and completely fagged out from the slightest exertion, are some of the deplorable effects of this enfeebling malady. As the disease progresses and the blood becomes more deeply poisoned, boils and abscesses and dark or yellow spots appear upon the skin.
